

Denver Workplace Training Program FAQs

1. When is it?
  - a. May 25 - July 27, 2023
2. Where is it?
  - a. Denver and the Greater Denver Area
3. Where will I live?
  - a. Housing will be on your own, and we can help!
    - i. Live where you currently live and commute in for meetings, or we can help you find a place for the summer with peers in the program, or a host family, if you do not live in the greater Denver area.
    - ii. In previous years, participants commuted from as far away as Parker and Boulder.
  - b. Please see the Expectations for more on this.
4. How much does it cost?
  - a. $700 if you apply before March 15th
  - b. $750 if you Apply after March 15th
    - i. We encourage you to fundraise!
    - ii. Reach out to maralee.whitey@navigator.org for fundraising help, as well as your campus staff.
5. Can we invite friends who are not involved with the Navigators?
  - a. Yes, they are free to apply, but they will have a more extensive interview process.
6. What does the cost of the program go to? Does it include food?
  - a. The money will go toward:
    - i. materials for the program (books, studies, etc.)
    - ii. materials for large group training
    - iii. Per diem for guest speakers
    - iv. One meal a week (on average)
    - v. Some fun events
    - vi. And more
  - b. It does not include food outside that one meal. We consider this a part of the training program for post college life: to live, work, buy food, and cook for yourself throughout the summer.
7. What will our free time look like?
  - a. We would call it “discretionary time” as you will need to prepare your Bible study and other requirements of the program, as well as cook, clean, eat, sleep, sabbath, and more.
  - b. We hope that you will be intentional with your free time, getting involved in the lives of your program community, other program participants, the church you attend, your neighbors, and your coworkers.
  - c. With 2 required times a week to gather and an expected sabbath, free time will be at your discretion as responsible adults.
8. I have a wedding I am in, are you saying I can't go to that wedding?
  - a. If the wedding is not during a meeting time, you are free to use your discretionary time as needed. If it is during a meeting time, you will need to discuss this with the Program Director.
9. Will we be required to attend a specific church, or can we go to whatever church we want?
  - a. No, but there will be expectations of you in your church involvement over the summer.
